11 Rachel R. Alexander,
12 Bar No. 020092

13 Appellant respectfully requests the Court reconsider its decision dated June 20, 2012
14 ordering Appellant to cease taking new clients from now until the suspension begins on July 15 23rd, 2012. Appellant is working under the monitoring supervision of Clint Bolick, an
16 agreement which Independent Bar Counsel stipulated to in order to allow her to continue
17 practicing law while appealing, an indication that she is not a danger to the public. Appellant
18 runs a bankruptcy law practice and is only paid by clients in the beginning, so prohibiting her
19 from taking on new clients would essentially act as an additional month of suspension.
20 Appellant and her fiance support her fiance's four children solely through their bankruptcy law
21 firm, so the harm caused by an additional month of no income would be severe. Appellant has 22 an agreement in place with bankruptcy attorney Bill Ponath to take over her cases when the 23 suspension goes into effect. This agreement was suggested by her mentor Clint Bolick.
26
27
28

For these reasons, Appellant respectfully requests the Court reconsider its decision

1 prohibiting her from taking on new clients until the suspension begins. Appellant has been
2 informing all existing and new clients about the possibility of the suspension.
